COMMENTS: Dreaming of a truck that can fit all of your best workers? The all-new 2020 Hino 195CC was designed with extra passengers in mind. The crew cab model features the same 210 horsepower and 440 lb.-ft. torque as the original 195, but on the inside is where things get an upgrade. The 2020 Hino 195CC is designed with a two-person high-back passenger seat and a three-person rear bench seat. With you, the driver included, up to six people can ride comfortably in this cabover model. This four-door model makes entering and exiting the cab a breeze. The Hino 195CC's unique front spring suspension system is loaded with shock absorbers that eliminate vibration and stabilize your ride. Add in power and heated outer rear view mirrors, power door locks and cruise control and you'll find yourself in a vehicle that was made with the driver in mind. For 60 years we at Somerville National Leasing have been striving to give our customers the best quality service possible.
