Whether you're making a delivery, transporting construction materials, or helping out on moving day, the new Hino 258 can tackle projects big or small. The Hino 258 features the Hino J-series 6-cylinder turbo diesel engine with an upgraded 7.7L and 230 horsepower at 2,500 rpm. A PTO-capable Allison 2200RDS 6-speed automatic transmission and 520 lb.-ft torque bring this new truck to life. At Hino, we call the 258's 'intense hydraulic 4-wheel disc brakes (with ABS) necessary standard equipment', because we don't settle for less, and neither should you. If you're transporting fragile cargo, or simply like a smoother ride, the 258 offers rear axle and rear spring suspension and front spring and front axle suspension, allowing weight to disperse evenly in the vehicle. It also feature optional Hendricks rear air suspension. Enjoy a clean chassis, standard for the Hino 258 model. With sleek chrome finishings and an attractive exterior, the Hino 258 is sure to stand out. LEASE ONLY. For 60 years we at Somerville National Leasing have been striving to give our customers the best quality service...
