COMMENTS: Our selection of Nissan sport utility vehicles includes this 2018 Murano Platinum, which is similar to the Pathfinder in size, but feels most like the Rogue; it's a crossover! Think of the Murano as a tall, hatchback iteration of the Maxima sedan, with confident braking and nicely weighted steering and Platinum features such as a back-up camera, Bluetooth for phone and audio streaming, a touchscreen navigation media interface, blind spot monitor, heated/cooled seats, a dual pane panoramic moonroof, smart key system for keyless entry/push-button ignition, and a premium audio system by Bose. Powered by a spirited 3.5L V6, the Murano makes plenty of power and gets up to 28 MPG! Come see this...
