COMMENTS: Acura's SUV line-up has a range of styles and sizes; one of the most well rounded, and most practical of their selection is the redesigned 2019 RDX. This is a great option for those who love the versatility of the outdoorsy Honda CR-V, but enjoy a luxurious, sporty ride in the city where the bulk of the miles on the odometer are logged. On the highway, the RDX gets up to 28 MPG in front wheel drive with a paddle shift-able automatic gearbox and seats 5 comfortably in beautiful leather. A few of it's features include back-up camera, navigation, blind spot monitor, Bluetooth, heated seats, smart key, and moonroof. Come on in and test drive this or any of our other sport utility vehicles we have to offer today!...
