COMMENTS: Kin to the Toyota Prius, the Lexus CT200h is more or less the "luxury" version; a hatchback with superior suspension, sportier body design, and more sophisticated interior feel. Inside this 2017, Lexus offers plush leatherette seating upholstery, the convenient SmartKey system, a power moonroof, Lexus sound system, and Bluetooth for handsfree connectivity. The CT 200h comes equipped with the CVT transmission with 4 separate drive modes (EV, Sport, Normal, and Eco), and gets up to 43 MPG in the city.
