COMMENTS: Ford's latest lineup of sedans, particularly this 2016 Fusion, look and feel more like European luxury cars than ever, but maintain a much more satisfying price tag and have MPG ratings and tech features that'll raise your eyebrows! This model comes with the turbocharged 2.0L engine, paired to an automatic paddle-shiftable automatic which produce a healthy 231 HP and get up to 33 MPG on the highway. The Titanium package leaves little to be desired with features like a touchscreen navigation interface, back-up camera with sonar park assist system, heated and air conditioned seats, remote start smart key, Sync by Microsoft, Bluetooth phone connectivity/music streaming, and a power...
