COMMENTS: Enjoy electric driving at its best with fantastic acceleration and plenty of range. The versatile and very fun-to-drive Kona electric is the first electric sub-compact SUV in Canada. This ground-breaking newcomer combines bold SUV style and features with a very impressive electric driving range. You can travel up to 415 kilometres[^] on a single charge, completely emissions-free. With this extensive range, you could charge the battery as little as once a week, depending on your lifestyle and driving habits. Charge at home, at work or on the road at a public charging station.
