COMMENTS: The Kia K5 is an outstanding vehicle and a major upgrade from the Kia Optima. The K5 has a sporty and premium feel you can't find in most rivals. Certainly, there are some familiar alternatives here, including the Honda Accord, Nissan Altima and Toyota Camry. There's also the Hyundai Sonata, which is mechanically related to the K5 and shares many of the same qualities. Still, the K5 stands slightly above the competition. The looks and the features the K5 offer are amazing and you definitely are left with a major satisfaction of the vehicle all together. The K5 will get you a great 37 MPG on the Highway. Come in today and take it for a test drive! ...
